United States District Court
Eastern District of MichiganAnthony Michael Bennett, Movant,

v.

United States,

Respondent

Case No. 12-20459

EMERGENCY Motion For Compassionate Release

Comes now Anthony Michael Bennett, pro se, pursuant to 18 USC 3582, by and through jailhouse lawyer Jeremy Pinson, and seeks compassionate release, as amended by the First Step Act of 2018. The COVID-19 pandemic has no recent analogue. The President declared a national emergency in an effort to address the spread of COVID-19. Thousands of BOP inmates are infected or dying. According to www.covidtracker.com 1,203,892 Americans are infected, and 71,043 are dead. Movant cannot follow any of the CDC's infection prevention guidelines in prison. He requested compassionate release from the Warden March 26, 2020 but received no response. The Movant has plans for housing, transportation, food. He has poor health conditions.

Wherefore this motion should be granted forthwith. Counsel should be appointed as movant cannot barely read.
